Cub Scout Packs are run by volunteer parents and it is a great way to spend quality time with you son or daughter and help ensure a quality program for all the Scouts in your pack.

Here are the basic volunteer positions:

Pack Committee

Committee Chair—Presides at all pack committee meetings. Helps recruit adult leaders and attends the monthly Pack Meeting.

Committee Member (x2 min.) - Committee members help perform the administrative functions of a Pack, these positions include Advancement Chair, New Member Coordinator, Secretary, Treasurer, Pack Trainer, etc.

Direct Leaders

Den Leader(s) - Den Leaders work 2-3 times monthly directly with the Cub Scouts. Den Leaders lead Den Meetings and help during the monthly Pack Meeting and may attend monthly Committee Meetings. Den Leaders work from a Den Meeting resources and the best part is—Den Meeting activities are already well planned and easy to carry out!!!

Cubmaster—The Cubmaster helps plan and carry out the Pack program with the help of the Pack Committee and Den Leaders. The Cubmaster leads the monthly Pack Meeting.

Resources and Training

It is important to know that you are not alone when it comes to volunteering! The Cub Scouting program began in 1930, which means that there are many resources available that you do not have to re-create yourself! There are many different tips and tricks that you can find online via your favorite search engine or even craft and activity ideas that you can find on sites like Pinterest and Scoutingmagazine.org. Most importantly, there are Den Meeting resources free online for each Den that literally map out everything that you need for your Den meetings.

Training is another key component to success in volunteering. Training for Cub Scout Leaders is broken down into three sections—Before the First Meeting, The First 30 Days, and Position Trained. This training can be taken in a classroom setting in person or it can be taken online in the comfort of your own home through my.scouting.org. This training explains everything that you need to know as a new leader from basic questions about the Cub Scout Program to resources available to you and more.
